

STAFF WRITER

Volume 55 - 2020/2021

As an Arthur Newspaper Staff Writer you will be an integral part of the campus news team. This role requires a student with an interest in campus and community happenings, social and political issues, as well as a passion for storytelling. Are there stories that need to be told? Always, and we will help you find them. Apply to become Arthur's Staff Writer and you will work with the editors to write the stories Trent students need to read.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Attend story meetings and communicate with Editors and fellow writers to work through story ideas
- Conduct research, interviews and attend events in the Trent University and Peterborough/Nogojwanong communities
- Write articles to be featured in Arthur Newspaper
- Work with editors to uphold Arthur's standard of journalistic integrity, as well as actively inclusive, anti-racist, and anti-oppressive journalism
- To be willing to grow as a writer by accepting constructive criticism, small copy edits, and fact checking

OPPORTUNITY REQUIREMENTS:

- Full-time Trent University student
- Trent Work Study Program (TWSP) eligible (OSAP recipient)
- Attention to detail
- Verbal and written communication skills
- Time management skills
- Interest in community events and issues relating to both the university and city
- Capable of working with minimal supervision
- Ability to deal with confidential/anonymized/pseudonymized material

Please email a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to editors@trentarthur.ca by 5PM on September 14th.

While all applications are accepted, only those considered for the position will be contacted for an interview. Thank you!
